

Elam and its Neighbors. Recent Research and New Perspectives
Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

September 21-23, 2016

Wednesday, September 21

9:00 Introduction

Session 1: Elamite Languages and Textual Sources

9:30 – 10:00

Dahl, Jacob (University of Oxford)

“Man”, “plough”, “cow”: progress and pitfalls in the decipherment of proto-Elamite

10:00 – 10:30

Mäder, Michael (University of Bern)

Some new Linear Elamite Inscriptions

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 – 11:30

Krebernik, Manfred (University of Jena)

A new Elamite incantation from the Hilprecht-collection Jena

11:30 – 12:00

Malbran-Labat, Florence/Roche-Hawley, Carole (French National Center for Scientific Research)

On the unpublished contracts from Susa (TS A IX-XV)

12:00 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 14:30

Badamchi, Hossein (University of Tehran)

Law in a Multicultural Society: Akkadian Legal Texts from Susa in Comparative Perspective

14:30 – 15:00

De Graef, Katrien (Ghent University)

Bilingualism and Biculturalism in Sukkalmah Susa

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee Break

15:30 – 16:00

Tavernier, Jan (University of Leuven)

Morphological Spellings in Elamite

16:00 – 16:30

Morando, Giacomo Luigi (Ghent University)

“The importance of being Akkadian” vs “The importance of being Elamite”. Looking for the true plot among professional people in Susa in the age of the Sukkalmah. An onomastic inquiry

Thursday, September 22

Session 2: Elamite History and Culture

9:30 - 10:00

Pruß, Alexander (University of Mainz)

The Gaps in Elamite Chronology

10:00 – 10:30

Álvarez-Mon, Javier (Macquarie University Sydney)

Puzur-Inšušinak, the last king of Akkad? Text and Image Reconsidered

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 – 11:30

Prechel, Doris (University of Mainz)

Administration in Haft Tappeh

11:30 – 12:00

Basello, Gian Pietro (University of Naples)

Use, abuse and recovery of the past in Elam (and Babylonia)

12:00 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 14:30

Mofidi-Nasrabadi, Behzad (University of Mainz)

Who was “^dMÚŠ.EREN.EŠŠANA.DINGIR.MEŠ”?

14:30 – 15:00

Henkelman, Wouter (University of Paris)

Liyan as a lens: Elamite history at Bušehr

15: 00 – 15:30 Coffee Break

Session 3: Fieldworks and Archaeological Investigations

15:30 – 16:00

Dabbagh, Mina (University of Lyon)

Corporeal iconography of female images and constitutive representation of gender in Elamite art

16:00 – 16:30

Rashidiyan, Elnaz (University of Frankfurt)

Dehno and its environs: A geoarchaeological approach to the Elamite urban places

16:30 – 17:00 Coffee Break

17:00 – 17:30

Shirvani, Qader/Mehrafarin, Reza/Kordestani, Maryam (University of Bu-Ali Sina, Hamedan)

The Kon-e Binu Site in Elamite Period

17:30 – 18:00

Dinarvand, Yousof/Ba Ahmadi, Hossein (University of Zahedan)

A Neo-Elamite Site in South of Susa

Friday, September 23

Session 3: Fieldwork and Archaeological Investigations

9:30 – 10:00

Abdali, Negar (University of Heidelberg)

Glazed artefacts in NW Iran and Elam: A common technology?

10:00 – 10:30

Zalaghi, Ali (University of Mainz)

Digging up the past: Rediscovery of the Elamite underground vaulted tombs at Tappeh Jangal (KS 53) in the Susiana plain

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 – 11:30

Rafiei-Alavi, Babak (University of Frankfurt)

Acquisition, Utilization, and End of Usage: The Dynamic of the Metal Industry in Haft Tappeh

11:30 – 12:00

Eslami, Moein (University of Frankfurt)

Mud brick production in Haft Tappeh: A technical study on earthen architecture materials of Haft Tappeh

12:00 – 14:00 Lunch

Session 4: Elam and its Neighbors

14:00 – 14:30

Ameri, Marta (Colby College)

Who Holds the Keys? Using the Archaeological Indicators of Administrative Activity from Shahr-i Sokhta to Reconstruct Administrative Practice in Third Millennium BC Iran

14:30 – 15:00

Karami, Mohammad (University of Tübingen)

Recent Iranian Center for Archaeological Research and Tübingen University Archaeological Explorations in Kerman, South of Iran

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee Break

15:30 – 16:00

Peyronel, Luca (University IULM of Milan)

Looking for merchants abroad. Commercial interactions between Elam, Dilmun and Ur during the Middle Bronze Age (c. 2000-1600 BC)

16:00 – 16:30

Wicks, Yasmina (University of Sydney)

Elam and its Neighbours: A View from Neo-Elamite Funerary Remains

16:30 – 17:00 Coffee Break

17:00 Resume